

PPG Certification 21

As a core program of PPG Certification training, this program trains refinish technicians in personal safety, spray equipment, paint chemical fundamentals, repair procedures, and PPG Deltron[®] or Global Refinish System (GRS).

Who Should Attend:	All refinish technicians Students should attend either the Deltron or GRS Certification 21 course depending on the system their shop uses
Course Objective:	To provide training on industry repair standards and procedures using PPG Deltron or GRS products
Course Length:	2 days
Class Size:	16 - 20 people
Topics Covered:	Safety Environmental awareness Fundamentals Refinish equipment 2K Undercoats & Sealers Single Stage / Direct Gloss Basecoat/Clearcoat Systems Medium and High Solids Urethane Clear Systems Overall and spot repair blending procedures Picking the best PPG Product System for your shop
The student will be able to:	Reference and be aware of recommended safety procedures Recognize elementary actions and reactions of automotive refinish paint products Demonstrate basic spray gun application techniques and reference recommended gun setups and specifications Properly perform the basic procedures necessary to properly prepare bare metal substrates for refinishing Explain sanding and preparation steps that should be performed before application of undercoats and topcoats Recognize principal characteristics of a wide variety of PPG undercoat products Understand fundamental technical data about Single Stage / Direct Gloss color Understand fundamental technical data about Basecoats Be familiar with principal characteristics of a wide variety of PPG clearcoat products Participate in several spray sessions with PPG products in a “real world” spray environment Successfully complete a written assessment about information presented during class

Note: Students will receive a PPG Refinish Training Manual, complete set of Product Information Sheets and a Certificate of Accomplishment. PPG Certified Technicians will also receive a special Certificate of Completion and Identification package from PPG Refinish headquarters. Daily lunch and refreshments are included with the course fee.

*Available in Spanish and French in certain locations.

