

PPG Color - Envirobase HP Course Description

This 2 day program is designed for the collision center technician who currently uses PPG products in their refinish operations. This course covers the theory of color and its practical application in matching and tinting EHP refinish waterborne colors. The Envirobase High Performance waterborne color system and its associated color tools are described in depth. Hands-on exercises are designed to provide product and color tool exposure to the technician.